COME AS YOU ARE

BUILDING BRIDGES & MAKING IMPACT THROUGH OUR WORK

About Diversify

Diversify is a non-profit organisation that actively works and advocate for an inclusive, diverse and responsible society across socio-economic and professional lines. Inclusion is an ongoing – not a ‘few session’ – training.

Our belief of diversity as a resource cements our work on projects that seeks to see everyone thrive on a basis of diversity, inclusion, social integration, employment opportunity, mental health and wellness.

About (Cont'd)

We aim to foster a growing, supportive and judgment free community that thrives on empathy, diversity, and opportunity for all, whilst rejecting the fear of the 'other'. We are hands-on in our approach and believe that people can flourish if they have an enabling society, workplace and community. Our primary goal is to provide the platform and resources to enable and support inclusive socio-economic advancement for all.

Our immediate areas of focus are twofold:

- 1) to advocate for and impact workplace inclusion in Norway across all diversity variables (including but not limited to age, race, gender, creed, nationality, language, religion and sexual orientation)
- 2) to design and execute projects that promote employment opportunities via entrepreneurship, social belonging, and mental health and wellness for people of immigrant or international backgrounds in Norway.

A Note From Our Board

In 2019, our work with Diversify has reached new heights. Our event offerings have increased by a factor of five (5x) from the previous year. In addition to our strong advocacy for employment inclusion and opportunity for our target group, we have expanded our work areas and mandate to include projects targeted at fostering stronger community ties and promoting mental health and wellness. Our physical and digital reach has amplified.

In 2019, we set out to offer more valuable events, bring stakeholders to the table, provide professional and personal resources for our target group, and build a closer community - we are happy to say that these objectives were met and exceeded. In 2019, we launched our widely successful Diversify blog where we write about relevant topics, as well as highlight empowering women in our communities. We also shared reflections and lessons learned on most of our events, which was disseminated through our social media accounts and made permanently available for all to access at any time.

We remain encouraged by our community members who continue to show up for our events and contribute to our work. Value creation remains the primary focus of Diversify's work and we are encouraged by direct feedback received from our target group of the value our organisation continues to bring them.

Our belief in collaboration has cemented our work this year. In this regard, we have collaborated with many organisations and stakeholders to provide impact, change and create value. We continually liaise with our community and target group who provide us with invaluable feedback that we take into account whilst we set goals and design projects targeted at bringing solutions to the challenges they face.

In 2020 and beyond, we aim to continue to strengthen our position and work on diversity, inclusion, employment opportunity, community building and mental health and wellness. Consequently, we will continually design projects and curate value-packed events that build bridges by connecting the majority (Norwegian society) to the minority (immigrants). In 2020, we plan to launch our own physical meeting place (offices and event location) accessible to the public, where we can focus a significant part of our efforts on the following:

- 1) Skills training to promote entrepreneurial and employment opportunities for our target group.
- 2) Women civic participation, empowerment and opportunities across social, economic, professional and personal lines.
- 3) Mental health and wellness for our target groups.
- 4) Data-driven research that provides clarity on the challenges our target group face, the impact of our work and projects, and best practices from lessons learned.

In our opinion these four areas are the most effective ways to facilitate job creation, network and community building, and mental health and wellness for people (especially women) of immigrant and cross-cultural background.

Social Sustainability

Our work at Diversify touches the eight sustainable development goals (SDGs) as listed below.

Diversify brought light and life to my first months in Oslo! As the name states, Diversify is a Hub of international diverse women working towards personal, professional and global development. It was amazing to meet like-minded, driven ladies; to chat, meditate and think differently about life's challenges, learn something cool and fun, find partners for future projects...etc. My feelings after each meeting would run the gamut from contemplative and strategic to relieved and energized. I look forward to future events with glee!!!

Hi Chisom,

We only met very briefly this evening but you were incredibly inspiring in a down to earth, cut-the-bullshit kind of way! I'd love to catch up over coffee sometime soon to get to know you and tell you a bit more about me.

Diversity

Hei Chisom! We met briefly at the event this week of Diversify at WeWork where I asked you for your email or contacts by the end of the evening. Thanks for the wonderful event and if you have time I would love to hear more about your journey. Also, as we all know, Oslo is a tough city to meet new friends. So as Katie said: If you never ask, you never know!

Kind regards,

Hi Chisom!

I attended your crazy event "Job Creation for and by Women". It was very inspiring, recognizable, correct, educational and an eye-opener. Thank you so much and the other speakers as well. Keep up doing the right thing!

Chisom,

Thank you so much for the event you put on yesterday - I thoroughly enjoyed it. Your moderation created a space for supportive voices and vulnerable sharing that I seldom, if ever, see in a Norwegian context.

I look forward to what comes next!

Dear Chisom,

Thank you for yesterday's meeting in event for women - Job Creation for and by Women. It was so inspiring, powerful and very valuable. I am very grateful and happy to attend this kind of event and grateful that I had a chance to hear so strong and motivating opinions.

I am motivated to visit this type of events in the future and get more involved in the discussion, forget about my shyness and fear.

Yesterday you encouraged me not to be afraid, thank you for that. In next events I will be more open to talk with other participants to share my story, I will be more open to create my network.
